Online Learning Tips
- Tuesday May 18th 11am–12pm

Whether you’re a new or experienced online learner, everyone can benefit from these tips and tools for engaging and being successful online.

Understanding Your Syllabus
- Tuesday May 18th 10am-10:30am
- Wednesday, May 19th 5pm–5:30pm

Course syllabi are your roadmaps to academic success, but students may gain opportunities to optimize performance in every class by learning their way around their syllabi. Know how to succeed in each class by understanding course objectives, and knowing which course resources and assessments are most crucial to your grade.

Effective Note-Taking
- Tuesday May 25th 4pm–5pm
- Wednesday, May 26th 11am–12pm

Do you find yourself taking notes and then not knowing how to study them later? Or maybe the way you take notes just isn’t working for every class. This workshop will introduce you to different strategies to revitalize your note-taking and and increase the variety of note-taking and note-using methods you can use for different purposes including note-taking during lectures, reviewing new material, deep study, and other circumstances.

Academic Time Management
- Tuesday, May 25th 11am–12pm
- Wednesday, May 26th 4pm–5pm

Achieve academic success by moving beyond basic planners and calendars; learn how adding a few simple time management techniques to your routine can significantly improve your academic performance and reduce the anxiety that comes with procrastination.

To register, go to https://tinyurl.com/CLCwksp
Importance of Faculty Office Hours
- Tuesday, June 1st 10am-10:30am
- Wednesday, June 2nd 4pm–4:30pm
Attending professor office hours can have a significant impact on your academic success. The goals of this workshop are to discuss the benefits of attending professor office hours and share strategies of how students can prepare for professor office hours.

High Impact Study Strategies 1: Spaced Study and Retrieval Practice
- Tuesday June 1st 4pm–5pm
Learn some simple, scientifically proven techniques that promote superior recall both on exams and in future classes in less time than “massed” study sessions (cramming).

Get Over Procrastination
- Tuesday, June 8th 3pm–4pm
- Wednesday, June 9th 10am–11:00am
Procrastination saps the energy and undermines the potential accomplishments of many talented people; so many of us see procrastination as an unwelcome but unavoidable part of our lives and even think it might be some sort of character flaw. The fact is that procrastination has many causes, and the key is to focus on making it easier to NOT procrastinate on high priority tasks. This workshop will teach you how small changes in your thinking, your routines, your habits, and your surroundings can make it easier for you to get essential things done while saving mental and emotional energy.

Get Ready for Finals
- Wednesday, June 16th 11am–12pm
Learn easy strategies to prioritize learning goals and schedule study time for Finals Week. This session will also review a few high-performance study and time management strategies to help you give your best performance on final exams.

To register, go to https://tinyurl.com/CLCwksp